Lend-Lease To Britain Two Billion

Reverse Lend-Lease up to January Billion and Half

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9—(AP)—The United States has furnished Britain with about $2,000,000,000 worth of foodstuffs in the three and a quarter years that lend-lease has been in operation. This is the most important element of civilian supply that will require adjustment when only the war with Japan remains.

A steady curtailment in lend-lease aid to the British Isles, paralleled by a return to normal commercial trade, is expected after Germany is defeated.

However, so far as can be learned, no program to that end has been worked out and officials plan to make the curtailment only when they have a real situation to work with.

It is impossible at this time, one authority said, to estimate just what lend-lease help the British will need to concentrate their efforts in the final campaigns to crush Japan. Here, however, is the background against which decisions must be made when the time comes:

In the first three years of lend-lease, March 1941 through March 1944, lend-lease shipments to all nations totaled $17,195,000,000. Of that amount $7,306,000,000 went to the United Kingdom.

Various Materials, Products

The United Kingdom total consisted of $3,169,000,000 of munitions such as guns and tanks, $1,853,000,000 of industrial materials and products such as machinery and processed petroleum, and $2,284,000,000 of agricultural supplies, including both food and farm machinery.

Foodstuffs alone totaled $1,825,000,000 which means that food shipments to the British Isles have averaged about $50,000,000 a month. The volume of food lend-leased is described officially as representing about 10 per cent of Britain's total supply.

Meanwhile reverse lend lease, most of it given in the British Isles, amounted to $1,526,170,000 up to last January, the latest period for which figures are currently available.

Reverse Lend-Lease

British reverse lend-lease has been chiefly in grounds, facilities and services for air and military bases. American supplies to Britain have run the list of military supplies and those civilian supplies—principally food—which were considered essential to the maintenance of Britain as a fighting nation.

Readjustment of civilian supplies is expected to begin as soon after the defeat of Germany as shipping and general economic conditions in the world will permit. Up to that point it will be considered essential to the war on Japan to keep the British supplied.

Prowler May Have Been Shot

A prowler, who has been working northeast Sedalia for the past two or three weeks, walked into the wrong yard at 112 East Chestnut about 11:20 o'clock Tuesday night. The resident, "Red" Pearson took a "pot shot" at him and is believed to have sprinkled the intruder with number four shot from a 20-gauge shotgun. No trace of the prowler was found, however, by police who searched the neighborhood for more than an hour.

Shortly before 10 o'clock a police call was received from the 200 block on East Chestnut and also in the 100 block. Police hurried to the neighborhood, circled several blocks, drove alleys and side streets, stopped a number of pedestrians and talked with them, but were unable to get a trace of the intruder.

Neighbors threatened to load up their shotguns and about 11:20 Mr. Pearson saw the man in his back yard. The neighbor next door also watched him standing in the back yard. Mr. Pearson leveled his gun and shot through the screen. The man yelled and then dashed west, down an alley behind the houses.

The fact the man shouted gave the police the impression he may have been hit.

R-Day In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 9—(AP)—New Orleans observed "R-day" today with a concerted drive to poison the growing rat population of the city.

Citizens were asked to put out 160,000 packages of poison bait and to keep refuse cans tightly covered so rodents would be forced to eat the bait.

Treason Trial Is Concluded

DENVER, Aug. 9—(AP)—The prosecution concluded its case today in the treason trial of three Japanese-American sisters accused of helping two German prisoners of war to escape from the Trinidad, Colo., internment camp last fall.

Defense Attorney Kenneth Robinson was expected to ask for a directed verdict of acquittal. He had announced he would make such a request.

The defendants are Mrs. Billie Shitara Tanigoshi, 32; Mrs. Tsuruko Wallace, 35; and Mrs. Florence Shivze Otani, 33.

Throughout the two previous days of trial, the women have remained poker-faced, displaying little emotion even when the two Germans, who were recaptured shortly after their escape, testified against them.

The government has charged that the women gave the two Germans, Heinrich Haider and Herman Loescher, maps, clothing and other equipment to facilitate their escape.

The Japanese-Americans, residents of the Granada relocation center at Amache, Colo., and the German prisoners-of-war worked on the same civilian farm last summer.

Conquest of Guam is Now All But Over

Counted Enemy Dead Already Exceeds 10,000

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Aug. 9—(AP)—Japan's hour glass was running out on Guam today.

Extermination of the last Nipponese was under way in the northeast corner of that U. S. outpost where a garrison of little more than 200 marines was overwhelmed in December, 1941, by 7,000 Japanese who told the natives the Americans never would return. The counted enemy dead already exceeds 10,000.

American warships, planes, marines and soldiers herded a last ditch group of defenders into a 15-square-mile area of the 225-square-mile area of the 225-drove a center wedge within a mile of the northeast coast, seeking to split up the doomed Japanese and speed their destruction.

While this clincher blow was falling on the eastern approach to the Philippines, Gen. Douglas McArthur announced today at his Southwest Pacific headquarters the sapping of Japan's air strength at Halmahera on the southern approach. He said Liberators, defying bad weather, wiped out 13 parked planes and damaged many others in a 48-ton bombing raid.

Push Enemy to Shore

On Guam, an American line roughly forming a letter "W" squeezed the enemy against the northeast shore, there to die without air or naval support.

The central of the "W" is within a mile of cutting the cornered Japanese in half.

Thousands of Japanese caught in another trap in the British New Guinea jungles have been cut into three groups for systematic destruction by two American columns punching toward Wewak from Aitape, McArthur reported today.

Both McArthur and Nimitz reported new air blows. McArthur

WACS Gain, Must Exercise More

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9—(AP)—Army chow, a WAC parade, a general's discerning eye and a survey combined to produce this edict:

Fifteen minutes of physical training daily for all members of the Women's Army Corps in the military district of Washington.

The reason: The survey showed that 67 out of 95 enlisted WACS gained an average of 9½ pounds each since entering the service.

Removed Splinter From Rommel's Head

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—(AP)—The British radio, crediting reports from German circles in Copenhagen, said today a Danish brain specialist, Prof. Edward Busch, "recently removed a shrapnel splinter from Rommel's head but refused to accept a fee." FCC monitors recorded the broadcast. By Berlin account, Marshal Erwin Rommel was injured in an air raid July 17.

O, Pioneer!

LOS ANGELES — Henry Strickland, an Oklahoma rancher who would like to get a job in a western movie, has rolled into Los Angeles from Oklahoma City with his wife and three children — after 105 days in a horse drawn prairie schooner.

Sighed Strickland: "I'd never be crazy enough to do it again."

Tried for Treason

The government charges that these three Japanese sisters provided the means by which two German prisoners of war, Cpl. Heinrich Halder and Cpl. Herman Loescher fled from a near-by internment camp at Trinidad, Colorado, last October. Sedalia Marine is Wounded in Both Legs in Drive on Saipan

SAIPAN, Marianas Islands—(Delayed)—Marine Private First Class William S. Wakeman, 21, of Sedalia, Missouri, was wounded in both legs in a drive against the Japs the first day our troops landed here.

Landing with the initial assault wave, Wakeman pressed across the airstrip on the western side of the island and made his way to the narrow-gauge railroad leading to the sugar mill at the town of Charan-Kanoa. Japs were dug in in trenches on the other side of the railroad and fire from there hit Wakeman in both knees.

In Good Spirits

I was at the medical aid station on the beach when Wakeman was brought in for evacuation to a transport. He was in good spirits, said he was not suffering much pain, and minimized his wounds. He accepted water and a cigarette, but declined a candy bar.

Wakeman's unit had one of the hardest jobs of the operation, that of making the first landing, sweeping across the airstrip, then moving south down the island to clean up in the area between the point of landing and the sugar refinery. The unit accomplished its mission despite bitter opposition.

Seventeen Die in Crash

HAVANA, Aug. 9—(AP)—Seventeen passengers are dead or missing as the result of the crash of a Pan American flying boat, which broke in two and sank yesterday in an attempted takeoff from the rough waters of Nipe bay, in northeastern Cuba.

Nine passengers and the crew of five are safe.

Survivors who were flown this morning from Antilla, scene of the accident, to Miami said they felt certain that all of those who are missing were trapped in the clipper and were drowned. Six bodies had been recovered at the time.

William D. Smallwood, a San Juan automobile dealer, said there were swells in the bay as the big four-engined clipped, which flew pioneer trans-Pacific flights to China in 1935, roared over the water for a takeoff.

"Just as we were ready to leave the water," he related, "we hit a high swell. It tore the bottom out of the ship. We must have been going 80 or 90 miles an hour.

"The plane shuddered to a stop in just a few feet.

"I was seated in the rear, near the hatch.

"I saw a wall of water coming through the plane toward me.

"I must have passed out from the shock, but before I did I saw the plane break in two and start to sink."

Three of Five Here Together

Mr. and Mrs. William White, route 5, Sedalia, have had three of their sons visit them in the past month. Lt. Joseph A. White, who has now gone overseas, is a pilot on a B-17 Flying Fortress; John T. White, machinist mate third class, stationed in San Francisco, Calif., for the past two years and James E. White, a student at Maryhurst college, Kirkwood, Mo. This is the first time the brothers have seen each other in over two years.

Mr. and Mrs. White have two other sons in service, Norbert V. White in the Seabees and Aviation Cadet William R. White, now in Stockton, Calif.

More Than 2,000 U. S. Heavy Bombers Hit German 'Detroit'

By Austin Bealmear

LONDON, Aug. 9—(AP)—More than 2,000 American heavy bombers and fighters from Britain and Italy attacked war targets today in Germany, Hungary and Yugoslavia while hundreds of planes slashed at bridges behind the French battle zone and exploded a huge ammunition dump.

About 750 Flying Fortresses and Liberators with an equal number of escorts flew through soupy weather from England and cast explosives on undisclosed objectives around Stuttgart, "the Detroit of Germany," and in other sectors of southern Germany. Clouds were three miles thick.

Hitler Regime Leaders Face Violent Death

Dictator is Using the Lash to Keep Them in Line

By De Witt MacKenzie
Associated Press War Analyst

Whether there's truth in the report that Nazi Gestapo chief Himmler-the-hangman has been assassinated and Reichsmarshal Goering wounded, the fact remains that all the leaders of the Hitler regime are increasingly in danger of violent death.

The dictator has put the already war-weary and gloomy German people under a terrific strain of regimentation in his program for total war. He has chained them to their galley seats and is using the lash to make them pull their oars. His armies are under the even greater stress of continual defeats and retreats.

Thus while Hitler may be able to keep the lid on for a time by terrorism and force, morale inevitably will deteriorate to the point where more and more individuals will seek the lives of the leaders responsible for Germany's catastrophe. The gallows which yesterday claimed eight more army officers has only begun its grim work.

Real Test To Come

The greatest test of Hitler's ability to hold his people in line is still to be made. He's about to undergo a trial by fire in the great retreats which the German armies must achieve in the western and eastern theatres to reach the inner defenses of the Reich for their last stand.

The greatest single menace hanging over Hitler as he tries to extricate his armies probably is the mighty Allied air-power which these days roams the skies

One-House Vote In November

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 9—(AP)—Missouri's voters will decide in November whether they want a new one-house legislature or their present two-house system.

Secretary of State Gregory Stockard officially accepted petitions for a vote on a one-house system yesterday after checking signatures on the petitions, which were circulated by the Crusaders of Missouri.

Stockard's office said the petitions bore 27,831 names—nearly 4,000 more than the 23,978 which were required to fill the law's demand for signatures of 5 per cent of the voters in the last election for a supreme court judge in nine of Missouri's 13 congressional districts.

School Band Concert At Park Thursday

The band concert at Liberty park Thursday night, beginning at 8 o'clock will be given by the all-school band, directed by Miss Geraldine Teufel. It closes the summer school music program.

The fifty members of the band are representative of the public grade school and Smith-Cotton high schools. Members have been rehearsing regularly all summer.

Four Boys Object to Punishment, Leave Home

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 9—(AP)—Leaving a note on the woodpile, Monday afternoon, four sons of Mrs. Martin Decker notified her that they were leaving home because she chastised them for smoking cigarets by assigning them a job sawing wood.

The boys are: Clinton Frieholtz, 9; Frank Frieholtz, 10; Johnnie Frieholtz, 12; Donald Frieholtz, 13.

City Has Two New Officers

Two police officers have been appointed to fill the vacancies created with the suspension of Officers Ray George and William "Bill" Hatfield, recently. The appointed officers are Paul Wensch, 1701 East Fifth street, and George Riley, 1700 East Fourth street.

The police department, however, is still one man short due to the resignation of Officer Raymond Vichrey, last Saturday morning. The regular roll of the department is thirteen men and the Chief of Police, giving a total of fourteen employes.

With the resignation of Officer Vichery the number of licensed radio operators was cut to three, leaving Sergeant George Maness on the desk during the day, Officer Cecil Smith, night operator on the desk at night and Officer Vollie Moore, patrol car and relief operator.

Chief Anson Finnell, announced the new officers would be instructed in radio operation and would be compelled to take the radio examination in an endeavor to obtain more operators necessary to keep the police radio in 100-per cent operation.

Gen. Bradley's First US Army Storms Unchecked Toward Paris After Occupying LeMans

Pfc. Fred H. Mahnken, Jr., is Killed in Action in Pacific

Pfc. Fred H. Mahnken, Jr., was killed in action on July 9 on Saipan island, according to a message received Tuesday from the war department by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Mahnken, Sr., of route 1, Sweet Springs.

Pfc. Mahnken was born in Sedalia on April 21, 1918 and spent his childhood at the family home on the West Main street road. He attended the Oak Grove school. The family then moved near La Monte and at the time he entered service in October, 1941, he was employed in Lees Summit. He was in the infantry and was sent overseas soon after going into the army, to the Hawaiian islands, where he was stationed about two years. For the past few months he has been in the combat area of the South Pacific and has participated in several battles.

His parents received a letter from him dated July 5, four days before he was killed.

Surviving, besides his parents, are a brother, Wesley of the home and a sister, Esther, now Mrs. Ed Moran of Kansas City. An aunt, Miss Edna Mahnken, resides at 125 East Broadway.

Pfc. Fred H. Mahnken, Jr.

Pfc. Mahnken was a member of the St. Paul Lutheran church in Sedalia.

Commander Nazi Division Is Captured

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Karl Spang, commander of the German 226th infantry division, has been captured by the American First Army near Brest.

Eight German generals have been killed in France. Two others and a rear admiral have been captured since D-day, June 6.

Within a week, the Germans have announced the deaths in France of Lt. Gen. Von Drabisch-Waechter, a divisional commander, and Maj. Gen. Rudolf Stegman, a western front commander.

In the Russian offensive started June 23, the Red Army has announced the capture of 27 German generals and the deaths of several others. Numerous other German general officers have been reported killed in the blood purge following the purported attempt to assassinate Hitler July 20, and in "accidents."

Many Voters Illiterate

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 9—(AP)—A report that a "heavy majority" of voters who cast ballots in five precincts at last week's primary had declared themselves to be illiterate was filed today with United States Attorney Harry C. Blanton by Jesse W. Barrett, chairman of the St. Louis board of election commissioners.

In one precinct, Barrett said, 90 percent of the voters declared illiteracy and asked help in marking theri ballots. In that precinct, Barrett added, the election officials were dismissed before the polls closed after 69 premarked ballots were found.

Barrett quoted the election officials as saying they had prepared the marked ballots in advance for use by illiterate voters.

"The deputy election commissioners told us that voters came into the polling places and said they wanted help in making out their ballots," Barrett said. "Most of them carried Spicuzza's sample ballot or the slate ballot of the Democratic organization."

A Joseph L. Spicuzza is Republican committeeman for the ward.

Floods in Japan, Crops Nevertheless

NEW YORK, Aug. 9—(AP)—A routine dispatch on crop conditions broadcast by the Japanese Domei news agency to the controlled press of occupied Asiatic areas and reported today by United States government monitors disclosed that a wide area in northern Japan had been subjected to severe floods some time last month.

"Last month Akita and Iwate prefectures were hit by the worst flood disasters since 1894," the dispatch said, but declared that farmers nevertheless "are busily engaged in raising their products."

"In the flooded valleys, where it was impossible to raise rice, the farmers have planted buckwheat," Domei explained.

Russian Army Stubbornly Goes Forward

Drive from South May be Pointed Toward Warsaw

By Daniel De Luce

MOSCOW, Aug. 9—(AP)—The Red army tightened a noose today around German Baltic forces once estimated at more than 20 divisions — between 250,000 and 300,000 men — and smashed a deeper wedge through Poland toward German Silesia west of the Vistula.

Three Soviet columns pressed on Riga from the west, south and east for possibly the biggest kill of the summer campaign. Heavily armored enemy units fell back upon the Latvian capital, their offensive thrusts shattered by Gen. Ivan C. Bagramian's right wing.

The Soviet high command announced that enemy forces are being "bled white" and "our troops are stubbornly advancing" against German reserve divisions thrown into desperate counterattacks in nearly every sector of the front to keep the Russian hordes from German soil. A communique supplement said all were repulsed.

The communique also announced a six-mile northward thrust on the Vistula bridgehead, a drive that may be pointed at Warsaw from the south and an advance to within 33 miles of Czechoslovakian border.

Hurl Detachments

The Russians said that to support their counterattacks the Germans are hurling "even road-building, airdrome and other rear detachments" into battle. It was reported 16 new German divisions have reached the front in the past three weeks — some from the central Germany reserves, others from western Poland, Italy, Yugoslavia, Hungary and Norway.

(The Russians did not disclose

Pfc. W.L. Carver Is Injured

Mrs. W. L. Carver received a message on August 7 from the War Department that her husband,

Pfc. William Leo Carver, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carver of Florence, was seriously injured on July 23 in action in France.

Private Carver was inducted into the army in December, 1942, and left for overseas duty in March, 1944.

Mrs. Carver, the former Miss Rosie Farris of this city, remained with Pfc. Carver until he was sent overseas.

At this time Mrs. Carver and daughter, Linda Rose, are making their home with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Carman Bealer, 1018 South Grand avenue

German Broadcast States Spearheads Are Only 87 Miles From French Capital

By Gladwin Hill

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Aug. 9— (AP) —Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's American First Army swept straight through Le Mans today and stormed still unchecked into the last hundred miles to Paris.

An official announcement of complete occupation of the big road and rail junction city made it clear that U. S. armor was firmly beyond the city, 110 miles southwest of Paris, and a German broadcast said fast spearheads were only 87 miles from the French capital.

Canadians on the east flank meanwhile had smashed 16 miles below Caen through the Germans' second defense line, and crushed on the approaches to Falaise, only four miles away, a communications center essential to the whole eastern shoulder of the German line.

The Germans pictured the American avalanche as already 23 miles beyond Le Mans, easily possible since the doughboys had not yet run into solid resistance and there was no indication where, short of Paris, the Germans might be able to check them.

A front dispatch said the Germans in Le Mans were taken by surprise while making a hasty and futile effort to fortify the city.

Threat to Pocket Enemy

The Canadian plunge carried to within four miles of Falaise, itself only 65 miles above Le Mans. The Allied wings were curling around the bulk of the German army and threatening to pocket it.

Other U. S. troops battering southward neared Angers on the Loire river, 50 miles inland from the river port of Nantes and 50 southwest of Le Mans.

This broadened the U. S. front in France to some 80 miles. Enemy resistance in the Loire push was reported light.

On the Breton peninsula, doughboys charged into the outer defenses of the great port of Brest after the German garrison refused a surrender ultimatum. Lt. Gen. Karl Spang, commanding the German 266th infantry was captured near Brest.

Both the Americans and Canadians were within little more than 100 miles — and perhaps closer—to Paris in a great pincers drive on the French capital.

Split German Forces

The Allies apparently had split German armored forces—heretofore so carefily husbanded — into three great blocs. The enemy threw tanks into vain attempts to halt the surge into Le Mans, four armored divisions had been committed to a futile counterattack at the Allied center near Mortain. The enemy was throwing other steel machines against the Canadian army tide advancing below Caen.

A front dispatch said Americans had sealed off the German penetration near Mortain, aimed at

Tip From the Lord On Numbers to Play

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 9—(AP)—John Bradley, 50, booked last night on a charge of possessing numbers slips, told Magistrate Louis E. Levinson he had "a message from the Lord to play the numbers."

Levinson gave Bradley 24 hours to see if his number comes out. "If your number doesn't win," the magistrate told Bradley, "that will prove your message didn't come from the Lord, because the Lord wouldn't give you a wrong number."

Rationing Off Some Stoves

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—(AP)—The first stoves will be removed from rationing August 15 when coal-wood laundry stoves and gas ranges with non-metallic outside back or side panels come off the rationed list, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

Nation-wide rationing of stoves went into effect about a year ago.

In Agreement On Oil Policy

Great Britain And U. S. Sign It In Security Plan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9—(AP)—The United States and Great Britain Tuesday signed agreement on world oil policy looking toward a settlement of competitive problems, as a contribution toward post war international security.

The agreement was signed by acting Secretary of State Stettinius for the United States and Lord Beaverbrook for the United Kingdom.

It sets up an international petroleum commission charged with estimating world demand for petroleum and recommending how British and American companies can carry out their production with the view to orderly development of world resources.

Announcing conclusion of the pact, which presumably is not subject to senate ratification, the state department said it is "of an interim character and is preliminary to the negotiation of a multilateral agreement on petroleum to which the governments of all producing and consuming countries interested in the international petroleum trade will, it is hoped, become signatories."

Chief Points On Pact

Main points in the agreement are:

1. Assurance of adequate petroleum supplies to "all peaceful countries at fair prices and on a non-discriminatory basis subject to such collective security arrangements as may at any time be in force."

2. "Development of petroleum resources with a view to the sound economic advancement of producing countries."

3. "Recognition of the principle advancement of producing countries."

3. "Recognition of the principle of equal opportunity in the acquisition of concessions."

5. "Freeing the production and distribution of petroleum from unnecessary restrictions."

The agreement, which is the first postwar pact on international trade, was viewed with satisfaction by both American and British officials.

They consider it a long step toward eliminating possible conflicts between their two governments and toward establishment of a mechanism with which to enforce peace.

The provision that all "peaceable countries' should be able to obtain plenty of oil was the basis for a ready means of imposing sanctions on most vital material for war against future aggressors.

Churchill Again Visits Battlefront

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Aug. 9 — (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill visited the Normandy battlefront again Tuesday, supreme headquarters disclosed tonight.

Adkins Concedes His Defeat

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 9—(AP)—Gov. Homer M. Adkins formally conceded defeat Tuesday night in the face of returns from more than two-thirds of the precincts showing his trailing youthful Rep. J. W. Fulbright by almost 13,000 votes in their race for the Arkansas Democratic senatorial nomination to succeed Sen. Hattie W. Caraway.

The tabulation in 1023 precincts out of 2087 gave Fulbright 46,992 and Adkins 38,519.

Returns followed about the same trend as they did in the preferential primary two weeks ago in which Fulbright finished about 16,500 votes ahead of the governor in a five-cornered race.

Negro voters turned out in greatly increased numbers today for the runoff.

HEALTH QUIZ

	YES	NO
Do you have poor digestion?	☐	☐
Do you feel headachy after eating?	☐	☐
Do you get sour or upset easily?	☐	☐
Do you feel tired—listless?	☐	☐

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pills aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 10¢ and 25¢

Conditions Enter Cases

To be eligible for a rental increase under the "peculiar circumstance" amendment of the rent control program, effective July 17, a landlord or owner of rental property must be able to show that the peculiar circumstance is unusual and such as to interfere with normal bargaining conditions and as a result the rent has been substantially lower than comparable rents in the area, Jas. M. Robertson, district rent executive said yesterday.

"Few persons who have filed applications for increases in the Kansas City area have qualified," the executive, who also serves as rent director in that area, said.

Before a landlord is eligible for an increase under the amendment, he must show that the rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially below the rent generally prevailing in the area; that the circumstances at the time were peculiar, and that the low rent was caused by these circumstances, the director said.

Two simple steps to amazing New STRENGTH

1—Promote the flow of vital digestive juices in the stomach
2—Energize your body with RICH, RED BLOOD!

THESE two important steps may help you to overcome the discomforts or embarrassment of sour stomach, jerky nerves, loss of appetite, underweight, digestive complaints, weakness, poor complexion!

A person who is operating on only a 70 to 75% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped. So with ample stomach digestive juices PLUS RICH, RED-BLOOD you should enjoy that sense of well-being which denotes physical fitness . . . mental alertness!

If you are subject to poor digestion or suspect deficient red-blood as the cause of your trouble, yet have no organic complication or focal infection, SSS Tonic may be just what you need as it is especially designed (1) to promote the flow of VITAL DIGESTIVE JUICES in the stomach and (2) to build-up BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient.

Build Sturdy Health and Help America Win

Thousands and thousands of users have testified to the benefits SSS Tonic has brought to them and scientific research shows that it gets results—that's why so many say "SSS Tonic builds sturdy health—makes you feel like yourself again." At drug stores in 10 and 20 oz. sizes. ©S.S.S.Co.

Follows Father and Grandfather As Governor of Vermont

MONTPELIER, Vt., Aug. 9—(AP)—Vermont's staunch Republicans apparently have heaped tradition upon tradition in nominating Mortimer R. Proctor for governor.

By his victory in yesterday's primary, the present lieutenant governor virtually was assured of occupying the gubernatorial chair in which his father and grandfather once sat, for in Vermont the GOP nomination is tantamount to election.

Club Talk on The Future Of Aviation

George Curnutt Tells Lions of Possibilities

The Lions club met today noon at the St. Francis hotel with Noel Tweet, president, presiding over the meeting.

George Curnutt was the program chairman and speaker at the meeting, talking on the subject: "The Future Outlook of Aviation."

The speaker said that the output of the aviation industry during the year was forty billion dollars, and by 1953 there would be over a half million commercial airplanes in steady service. Towns and especially large cities are making plans for downtown airports, he said. At the present time, he declared, it takes longer to get from the airports to the business districts in Chicago and St. Louis than it does to go by plane from one city to the other. St. Louis is planning an airport near Third street, Chicago is planning one near the lake and New York plans to build on top of the docks.

Trans-ocean travel is being considered, too, with Boston, Detroit and Chicago leading in these plans, said the speaker. St. Louis is expected to be the terminus of the South American routes.

Airports In Small Towns

Not only the large cities but small towns, too, are getting ready for peace time aviation, he told the Lions, continuing: A Texas town of 10,000 population has built an airport costing $100,000 and an Oregon town has built an airport to accommodate 400 passenger airplanes. Several bus airlines are to be incorporated with the roofs of the depot used for the helicopter planes. Wichita, Kas., having several war plants, plans peacetime helicopter planes for delivery to the door.

Sedalia has possibilities in aviation, too, he said. Aviation minded citizens believe it could be made the terminal for the Lake of the Ozarks with an air line from Sedalia to the Lake of the Ozarks vacation spots.

said the power plant on Yap, enemy air base in the western Carolines which now has been neutralized, was swept by fire and explosions during a Liberator raid.

Japan's phosphate resources were depleted during a three-day raid, Aug. 5, 6 and 7, on Nauru, reported by Nimitz. He also announced an Aug. 5 raid on wake island and attacks Aug. 4 in the Paramushiro area of the Kuriles. Not a raider was lost in these operations.

Politics Into Strike Talk

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—(AP)—U. S. District Judge George A. Welsh told a special investigating grand jury today that Philadelphia's six-day transit strike may have been called "to have some effect on the impending national election."

The jurist, in a 40-minute charge, said he did not believe the upgrading of eight Negro transit employes to operating jobs was the real cause of the unauthorized walkout. Strike spokesmen had said it was.

"I don't want to bring politics into this investigation," Judge Welsh said, "but you may find that what was in the hearts and minds of the men who called this strike was intended to have some effect on the impending national election."

Capt. Norman S. Ives Killed in Action

WASHINGTON, Ag. 9— (AP) — Capt. Norman S. Ives, U. S. director of the port of Cherbourg, France, has been killed in action.

The navy disclosed this today, but gave no indication of how the 47 year old officer met death.

A veteran of duty with submarines, Ives played a large part in development of safety devices which have saved the lives of many men serving on submersibles.

Ives, a native of Galesburg, Ill., was named port director at Cherbourg last month. He was the first Allied naval officer to become director of a captured French port. He arrived in Cherbourg only a few hours after the port was captured.

Conferring on New Chairman

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 9—(AP)—Senator Harry S. Truman, Democratic nominee for vice president, apparently will have a hand in the selection of a new chairman of the Democratic state committee.

It was reported that Attorney General Roy McKittrick, who defeated Senator Bennett Champ Clark in last week's primary, and other party nominees consulted with Truman by telephone today at a meeting called to name the new chairman.

McKittrick has proposed Fred W. Emig, his St. Louis campaign manager, but Phil M. Donnelly, the gubernatorial nominee, said he favored appointment of a chairman from some part of the state other than St. Louis or Kansas City.

Formal action on election of the state chairman will be taken at the platform meeting of the state committee and the nominees in Jefferson City Sept. 12.

Walter G. Stillwell of Hannibal, the present chairman, is in the navy.

In The Service

Mrs. Charles Bryant of Spring Ford received a letter recently from her husband, Cpl. Charles Bryant, who is somewhere in New Guinea in which he said that he was in good health, and enclosed fifty dollars and twenty cents in Japanese money.

Cpl. Bryant, who is in the infantry, entered service June 22, 1941. He went first to Jefferson Barracks, then to Fort Leonard Wood for eighteen manths, then to Lake Ozark; Martin, Tenn.; Gladeville, Tenn.; Lebanon, Tenn,; Manchester, Tenn,; Nashville, Tenn.; Dickson, Tenn.; Little Rock, Ark.; Shreveport, La.; Monral, La.; St. Louis, Mo.; San Lius Obispo, Calif.; Yuma, Arizona and then to Pearl Harbor where he spent a year. For the past four months he has been in action in New Guinea.

Mrs. R. D. Bulkley, 2514 East Broadway, received a cablegram Tuesday from her grandson, seaman first class John Bryan Woodward, USNR, in which the states he is safe and well, his thoughts ers with her, concluding with, "All my love dearest."

The young sailor has not been home since last New Year's day, and the cable to her Tuesday made her very happy.

Cpl. Charles E. Jones of the Army Air Force, who is stationed in San Francisco, Calif., is home on furlough visiting his daughter, Hazel Marie, his mother, Mrs. Cora Jones and his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Delaney, 609 North New York avenue, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fingland, 1217 South Barrett, have received word from their son, Pvt. Robert Fingland, that he has arrived in England. He is with the armored forces. Mr. and Mrs. Fingland have another son, Staff Sgt. William Fingland who is in England.

Former Sedalian Here from California

Mrs. Frances Moore, former Sedalian, now of Los Angeles, Calif., is here visiting Mrs. T. J. Cerney, 905 South Prospect avenue, and other relatives. Mrs. Moore is on her way to Dayton, Ohio, where on August 15 her daughter, Mary Helen, now Sister Francine, will take her final vows in the religious order of the Precious Blood. She has been in the convent seven years.

Mrs. Moore is employed in the auditing department of the Pacific Electric company in Los Angeles.

Debits To Individual Accounts 9t Banks Increase

During June, 1944, debits to individual accounts at banks in Sedalia aggregated $6,876,000, and were 19.7 per cent more than those for the same month last year. These debit figures represent for the most part checks against depositors' accounts in payment of goods, services, and debts, and are considered a good indicator of general business activity.

Obituaries

M. H. DeJarnette Service

The body of Marcelluis Henry DeJarnett, 83 years old, a former resident of LaMonte and Green Ridge, who died Monday at the home of his son, Marion DeJarnette, in Lincoln, Neb., will be taken to the Parker home in LaMonte.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Walnut Branch church, south of LaMonte and West of Sedalia, the Rev. Elmer Botts officiating.

Pallbearers will be: Henry Cook, Joe Bucher, Frank Chaney, Leonard Scotten, Kirby Templeton and George Landes.

Burial will be in the Botts cemetery.

Mr. DeJarnette, who was known as "Sig" to his friends spent most of his life in Pettis county, moving a few years ago to Nebraska, because of ill health, to make his home with his son and family.

He was the son of the late Mayo and Mariette DeJarnett, and was one of fifteen children. He was married to Miss Kate Scotten and they were the parents of four children. Mrs. DeJarnette preceded him in death.

Surviving besides the son at whose home he died are three daughters, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Grain Valley, Mo.; Mrs. Inez Bishop and Mrs. Ethel Ray, both of the state of California, five children and two great grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters, James DeJarnett, Sedalia; Millard DeJarnette, Waverly, Kas.; Willis DeJarnette, Lincoln, Neb.; and Albert DeJarnette of the state of California; Dollie Hutchinson of Wyoming; Mrs. Elma Summions of Wyoming; Mrs. Winnie Wise of California and Mrs. Jeff Drake of Sedalia.

Mrs. Mildred M. Schrader

Mrs. Mildred Maude Schrader, aged 59 years, wife of Elmer Schrader, 300 East Twenty-fourth street, died at the Bothwell hospital Tuesday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock, following an operation. She had been admitted to the hospital early that morning.

Surviving besides her husband are five sons, Kenneth Schrader of the navy, Leo Schrader, Elza Schrader, Clarence Schrader and Clifford Schrader, all of Sedalia, five brothers, Walter Hughes, Frank Hughes, Roy Hughes, Thurman Hughes and William Hughes, all of Sedalia; and two sisters, Mrs. Della Todd, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Neta Gatewood, of Sedalia. Also surviving are five grandchildren.

The body is at the McLaughlin funeral chapel. Funeral arrangements have not been made awaiting word from the son who is in service.

Mrs. Viola Hughes Elwell

Mrs. Viola Hughes Elwell, 52, died at her home in Knob Noster Tuesday morning at 11:45 o'clock after a long illness.

Mrs. Elwell was born December 31, 1893, the daughter of P. G. and Elizabeth Hughes. She was married to C. A. Elwell November 26, 1915.

Surviving her are three children, John Hughes Elwell, serving with the armed forces in England; Francis Wilson Elwell, with the Coast Guard in North Carolina and Walter Nace Elwell of the home. The sons Francis and Walter were at their mother's bedside at the time of her death. Also surviving her are a brother, Walter Hughes, of Warrensburg, and a sister, Mrs. John Colster, of Centerview.

Mrs. Elwell united with the Baptist church a number of years ago.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Baptist church in Knobnoster, with the pastor, Rev. O. A. Blaylock officiating. Mrs. Charles Covey will be in charge of the music. Friends will serve as pallbearers and burial will be in the Knob Noster cemetery.

Funeral Of H. W. Schaper

Funeral services were held Sunday morning at the Methodist church in Fortuna for Henry W. Schaper, aged 69 years, who died at his home in Fortuna August 3. The Rev. J. L. Ricketts officiated.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Margaret E. Moss, Jefferson City, Aubrey F. Schaper, Joplin and Capt. Ernest H. Schaper, now serving in France. A brother, Will Schaper, of Versailles, survives with two sisters, Mrs. Louise Guenther, Versailles and Mrs. Josephine Lumpee, Payette, Ida., and three grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Robert Doran, A. P. Foley, H. E. Haldiman, Virgil Carter, E. M. Hays and Marvin McPherson. Music was by Mrs. Zora Charles, Mrs. Okal Embry, E. L. Slote and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hofstetter.

German Radio Announces Example of Total War

LONDON, Aug. 9 —(AP)— An example of total war, as announced today by the German radio:

"In restaurants at Konigsberg, customers go to the kitchen with their plates, have their plates filled and then before leaving the restaurant, must wash their plates so that all waiters and male kitchen staff members can dig."

Russian armies are 93 miles from the East Prussian capital.

splitting the Allied corridor and had knocked the enemy from Cherence Roussel in that area and captured three more towns. Fighting continued, however, near Juvigny, northwest of Mortain.

U. S. forces were closing also on the ports of St. Malo, on the north Breton coast, St. Nazaire and Nantes. Reconnaissance patrols were reported at the Loire's river mouth.

Russian Army Stubbornly Goes Forward

where the German counterattacks have occurred but it could be assumed that at least part were aimed at keeping the Red army from leaping forward the few miles needed to reach the soil of East Prussia.

(The Germans announced that many new officers "have taken over on the eastern front at this critical juncture.")

A German southward thrust aimed at breaking out of the Estonia-Latvia encirclement was broken up by Soviet forces several days ago in the Birzai area in northern Lithuania near the Latvian border, the daily Russian communique said.

Gain New Momentum

Front advices said there was reason to believe one of the biggest encirclements of the summer campaign was gaining new momentum. Thousands of German soldiers strung out in the vast spaces from the Gulf of Riga to the southern shores of Lakes Peipus were reported being driven back to the Baltic in a battle of extermination.

Once again the Russian communique made no mention of the situation before Warsaw, where Soviet troops last were reported battering the eastern suburbs while the Polish underground fought the Germans inside the capital itself.

Hitler Regime Leaders Face Violent Death

with little challenge. When the Germans stand and fight, great fleets of American and British flying-artillery deluge them with death—even the heavy bombers, so huge they look like winged battleships, unloading their monster explosives in enemy ranks. When the Hitlerites retreat, they are pursued and decimated by warplanes.

Proves Value of Air Power

The fine and going Canadian offensive in the Caen sector provides an excellent illustration of the use of air power in battle. This vastly important and difficult attack was preceded by an unprecedented bombardment by some 1,600 planes, after which the hard-hitting Canadians (grand troops, those chaps) slammed into the powerful German defenses and hurled the enemy back several miles. That battle, by the way, is worth watching.

But to return to the air, Allied planes are roving the whole continent at will, destroying war industries and supplies and vital communications until Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, commander of the U. S. Ninth Air Force in France, was able to declare yesterday that the German army in Nomandy is in critical state. He said it "is slowly strangling for want of supplies."

So the retreat of the German armies will be one of the most hazardous of history.

Von Papen Arrested

ISTANBOUL, Aug. 9— (AP) — Franz von Papen, former German ambassador to Turkey, was arrested as soon as he entered Germany yesterday on his return from Ankara, an official of an international bank here reported last night. The bank official, a personal friend of Von Papen, received no details of the arrest.

Advances In Stocks

By Gareth Muchmore

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—(AP)—A handful of utility issues, the more active of the group under the $10 level, scored modest advances in the stock market today although their early gains were pared.

Low-priced motors drifted under the burden of continued liquidation but selling lacked urgency and losses were fractional most of the day.

Prominent shares in other categories and, toward the close, held within minor fractions of previous prices. Turnover was about 1,000,000 shares for the session.

The war news again was a restraining factor to bidding, further Allied advances inspiring caution and stimulating consideration of the effect on domestic industry of a Nazi collapse.

Grains Regain Losses

By Willard Robertson

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Rye and oats regained some of their recent losses today as traders finally took notice of the continued drought and further corin damage, but there was little news to hold up wheat prices and the market was weak.

Poor flour business was one discouraged influence to wheat buyers. Also, the Kansas City Grain Market Review said it doubted public elevators could absorb more than about 2,500,000 bushels additional grain after quantities already bought were accomodated. Absolute capacity appeared a certainty, with the crop still moving. Daily buying after that, the publication prediction, probably would be limited to outloading and amounts the mills could take in.

The Lost Battalion of World War II

Through Four Nights and Three Days of Hell, Yank Infantrymen Battled Against Overwhelming Odds

One of the war's most heroic actions was fought by the Second Battalion, on the vital heights southeast of St. Lo before the city's fall. Staff Sgt. Roland W. Cote, Central Falls, R. I., was platoon guide in E Company of the Second Battalion of the 116th Infantry. Here he reports what happened when his company was cut off and surrounded for four nights and three days by overwhelmingly superior German forces.

By STAFF SERGEANT ROLAND W. COTE
Written for NEA Service

"We sneaked down the hill, jumping from one bit of cover to another . . ."

HEADQUARTERS, E. COMPANY—We jumped off at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening. Our objective was the high ground southeast of St. Lo. That meant taking two hills and the valley between them.

By the time we reached the first high ground there were German troops to our right and left. They let us come through. I think they were trying to trap us. We sneaked down the hill, jumping from one bit of cover to another, through apple orchards and across hedgerows.

By the time we reached the bottom of the valley there were only about 100 of us. There were only two platoons of E Company with 16 riflemen instead of the 80 we had at full strength. There were also three platoons of F Company, with a total of 80 or 90 men including a heavy machine gun platoon. Our Third platoon and our Weapons platoon, plus the entire G Company, was pinned down by heavy fire on the hilltop.

Then the Germans closed in behind us and cut us off.

For one brief moment before we were cut off, Major (now Lt. Col.) Sidney Bingham, of Dallas, Tex., was in phone contact with the regimental command post.

Hold Ground

The Regiment told us to pull back to the first hill, but the Major said, "Hell, no, we've got this ground. Let's stay and hold it." No one slept that night. We were under mortar and grenade and machine gun fire all night. We did manage to get two runners through the German lines and the next morning they brought up G Company and our Third Platoon and our Weapons Company.

Sunday all we did was dig in. We got pretty hungry and thirsty because when we left we had only two rations apiece. Most of us had eaten both Saturday night. By Sunday afternoon everyone's canteen was dry.

We didn't do much talking Sunday. Every time we bunched up Jerry started throwing shells at us. When we did talk we talked about food and drink and when they would relieve us. We thought we were surely cooked geese.

Sunday night a couple of men sneaked half way down the hill behind us to a couple of abandoned houses and found water.

That night no one got any sleep again. We could hear German tanks coming up. We couldn't send more runners back that night because Jerry was plastering the valley with everything he had. Why they didn't come and get us that night I'll never know. They had about 500 men. I guess they thought us stronger than we were.

Monday morning some men slipped down to the abandoned houses and found some eggs and smoked ham and frostbitten potatoes. They took some pots and candles and cooked their haul in the foxholes. A couple of dozen of us, including me, because I invited myself, ate the meal.

On Monday we had our closest call. We decided we were so near the top of the hill we might as well go the whole way. We had started to move forward when we ran right into some German tanks. We moved back to our former position darn quick.

Prisoner Helps

In our push forward we took about a dozen prisoners, including a medical soldier. He was a big help, because we had only one Company Aid man with us and had about 20 casualties.

Monday afternoon we got some help. Our regiment's Third Battalion fought its way through to us. But this didn't mean we were free. The Germans cut them off, too. But they brought with them a radio transmitter so we could call the regiment and division.

The first thing we asked for was Air Corps against tanks. P-47's came over and did a beautiful bombing job right in front of us. That knocked out the threat of an immediate German attack.

Plasma Flown In

Then we asked for plasma for the wounded. They flew it in to us in two Cub planes, which flew so low they had to climb to clear the hedgerows.

When Jerry saw the planes flying stuff in to us they knew for the first time we were cut off. Things really looked bad for a while then. But early Tuesday morning a carrier party managed to work its way up to us, bringing one D ration (fortified candy bar) apiece and some water and ammunition.

When we heard the carrier party coming we thought it was Jerry and threw grenades. The lieutenant leading the party was killed before we learned of our mistake.

Tuesday morning things began to pick up. One of our other regiments started working towards us from the left. Our regiment's First Battalion pushed in from the right. That morning our First Battalion got through.

We felt pretty good. We knew Jerry was going to catch hell then.

Reduction Plan Submitted PSC

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 9—(AP)—The City Light and Traction Company which supplies electricity for Sedalia, Tuesday offered Public Service Commission a proposition to give its customers $50,000 in free service this year and file new rates which would save them $25,000 annually.

The rate reduction plan was submitted at the request of the PSC.

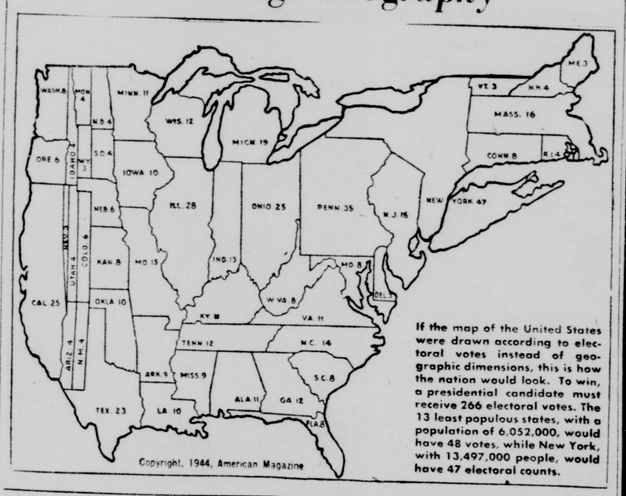

The proposal, signed by H. C. Feuers, president of the company, offered free service for September and said during October consumers "would receive an estimate percentage of reduction" so that "unbilled electricity service for the months of September and October would aggregate $50,000."

The company said it then would file a new rate plan, to be effective January 1, which would provide a "saving to retail customers x x x of not less than $25,000" a year.

Refund and rate cuts would apply to all consumers, including the City of Sedalia, which buys current for street lighting and other purposes from the company, but they would not apply to wholesale and special contract buyers.

The plan has not yet been accepted by the PSC.

Electoral College Geography

If the map of the United States were drawn according to electoral votes instead of geographic dimensions, this is how the nation would look. To win, a presidential candidate must receive 266 electoral votes. The 13 least populous states, with a population of 6,052,000, would have 48 votes, while New York, with 13,497,000 people, would have 47 electoral counts.

Paid For Wolf Scalp

"Pete" McFarland, of northeast of Sedalia, was paid $7 Tuesday for an old wolf scalp by the Pettis county court, through J. H. Green, clerk.

HELPFUL HOUSEHOLD HINTS

KEEPING YOUR WASHER "ON THE JOB"

Don't let your laundry problem get out of hand. If you are the fortunate owner of an electric washer in good condition, keep it that way. You can't buy a new one these days and repair parts are so scarce that a major repair may require weeks of waiting.

CHECK YOURSELF ON THESE POINTS

1 Don't overload the washer. Fill the tub only to the water line and add clothes to the washer's capacity, and no more.
2 When you finish washing, fill tub with clear water, remove the agitator, then drain tub and wipe inside clean with a soft cloth. Don't let dirty water stand in tub overnight.
3 Don't overload the wringer. The rolls are rubber, and doubled-up blankets, buckles, and heavy buttons may damage the rolls.
4 Clean and dry wringer after use and leave in neutral position so pressure is off the rolls.
5 Empty drain hose thoroughly after each use. Avoid sharp bends.
6 A noisy washer may be a washer in need of expert attention. Call a qualified service man if washer does not operate properly.

DAILY WASHINGTON

merry-go-round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9— The row inside the War Production Board over peacetime conversion is basically between big business and little business, but some interesting personalities have come back to Washington and taken unique sides in the fight. One is Sidney Weinberg, partner in the giant investment banking firm of Goldman-Sachs of New York.

Essentially, the big manufacturers, such as General Motors, Du Pont, General Electric and Curtiss-Wright, which have secured the great bulk of war business, want to hold up peacetime conversion until they can finish their war orders. They don't want other firms to get a head start. Their friends inside the War Production Board, led by charming Charles E. Wilson, efficient head of General Electric, have fought tooth and nail for this position.

But WPBoss Donald Nelson maintains that little companies which don't get the breaks on war orders should be given a chance for at least some peacetime orders.

Several weeks ago, Wilson suggested to Nelson that an old friend, whom both of them could trust, wanted to come back to Washington—namely, Sidney Weinberg. Nelson gladly acquiesced. Weinberg, a director of Nelson's old firm, Sears-Roebuck, had helped him during the early WPB battle with the army. A former sleuth in naval intelligence during the World War I, Weinberg used to be known as Nelson's hatchet man.

But in his recent tour of WPB duty, Weinberg has sided with big business and Nelson's opponent, Wilson. He has been battling vigorously against his old friend Don.

Realizing what a hot seat he had got into, Weinberg was complaining the other day to John Lord O'Brian, War Production Board general counsel and former Republican candidate for senator from New York.

"I am going to resign," fumed the Goldman-Sachs partner. "Don Nelson's friends have been criticizing me for selling out to Wall Street."

To which solid Republican O'Brian shot back:

"Well, haven't you, Sidney?"

Note — Six big firms have received 50 per cent of all war orders. 70 per cent of the orders went to only 100 firms. Approximately 30,000 other firms have to divide up the remainder.

Scene in a Washington Drug Store

A small, middle-aged man, wearing a marine officer's uniform without service ribbons, walked up to the cigar counter in a Washington drug store and almost timidly asked for matches. The clerk handed him a pack of paper matches. The little marine hesitated, then handed them back.

"Oh, I want the long wooden matches," he said, "I am afraid of these — they burn my fingers."

The clerk stared contemptuously. He assumed this was just another swivel-chair officer. What he did not know was that the mild little man was Brig. Gen. Oscar Ray (Speedy) Cauldwell, who led the "Fighting Third" Marines in the initial landing at Bougainville and in the battle of the Gilberts.

Wounded in both World Wars I and II, little "Speedy" Cauldwell has the reputation among enlisted marines as one of the best "fighting men" in the marine corps.

"E" For Errors?

Navy department officials aren't saying anything about it, but they have received several complaints from workers in war plants who want to know why the armed forces are making a farce of the army-navy awards. The navy is actually granting E's to companies found guilty of war frauds against the Allies.

Fact is, Anaconda Wire and Cable got its third army-navy E award July 17, although officials of one of the company's plants had been indicted and convicted for sending faulty copper wire to the Russian army. The court record showed that this wire was for communication between units of the Red army, but was completely faulty. Once it had been put to use on the eastern front, it might have cost thousands of Russian lives. Yet, despite these convictions, Anaconda continues to win navy E's for excellence.

Workers in war plants, looking at the flag flying over the Anaconda factories, with a big E whipping through the air, now say, "They must be giving out those E's for errors."

Capital Chaff

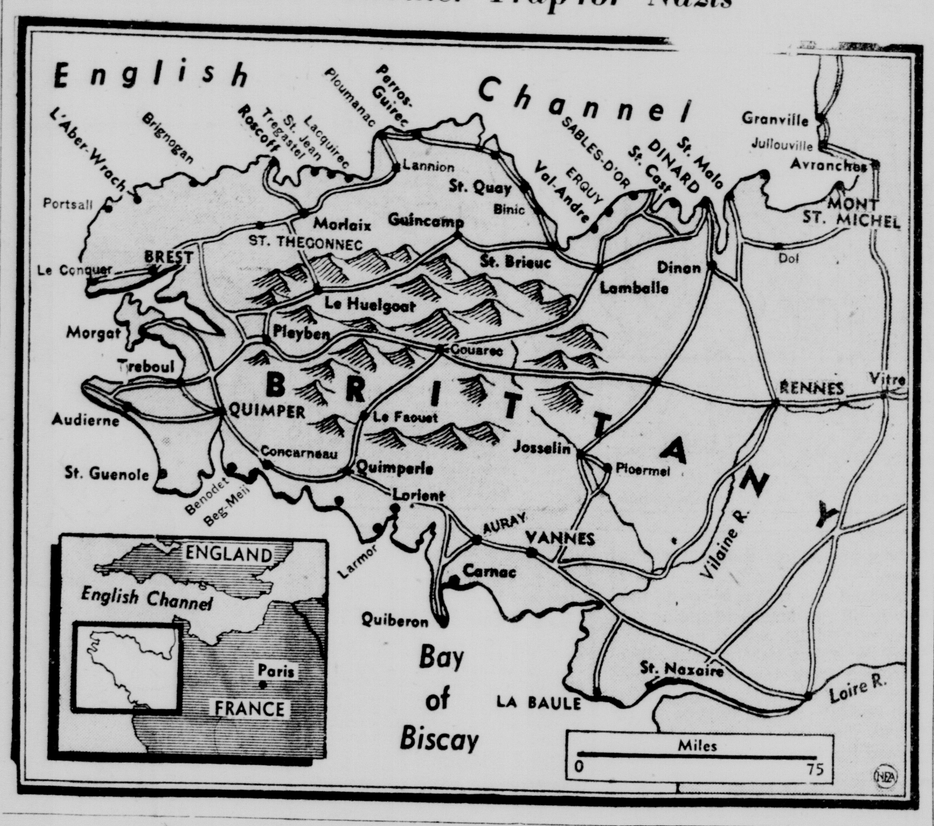

One thing Lt. Gen. McNair did before he was killed was to provide longer furloughs for trainees. In a letter to Congressman (former private) Henry Jackson of Washington, McNair wrote: "As to a little longer furlough for trainees leaving the RTC's, I appreciate the force of your views. Accordingly, instructions will be issued shortly increasing the period at home from seven to ten days. Thanks for your suggestion in this matter." . . . Stanley Arnold, the Cleveland boy who claims that the most important war dates have been on the 7th and 11th, now points out that Thomas Dewey has eleven letters in his name and that the election is on the 7th of November. . . . Despite the anti-Roosevelt furore in Louisiana, E. A. Stephens, businessman candidate for the senate against incumbent Senator Overton, has announced: "I am going to vote for President Roosevelt as commander-in-chief. I also want to go on record that any elector elected by the people should cast his ballot in accord with the mandate of the people. Louisiana's vote must be counted. Southern honor permits no other course.' . . With the spotlight focused on our troublesome neighbor, Ray Josephs' book "Argentine Diary" is going like wildfire. . . When the American Trucking Associtaion took full-page newspaper ads calling on Col. Bradley Dewey to reconsider his resignation as Rubber Director, Dewey didn't read the ads for two full days. Asked for his reaction later, he said he hadn't read them but remembered the line of big type at the top. It read: "Wait a minute, Mr. Dewey!" Col. Dewey couldn't understand that it meant him, thought it really meant, "Wait a minute, Governor Dewey!"

Farley Changes His Mind

Here's the story of Jim Farley's trip to the Democratic convention. He was primed and loaded with ammunition to upset a fourth term. But enroute, he met former Mayor John Durkan of Scranton, Pa., a long-time friend and counsellor of Farley's, a man who has dined with the president, wined with kings, and who once saved Farley a small fortune by advising him not to get mixed up in the old Pierce-Arrow company, which subsequently went to the wall.

Durkan, travelling with Jim, prevailed upon him to hold his peace and his tongue. So convincing did the former mayor put it, that Jim wrapped up his tirade and just sat looking and listening at Chicago.

Truman May Open Campaign At Lamar

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9—(AP)—Sen. Harry S. Truman of Missouri probably will open his campaign for the vice-presidency at an official notification meeting August 29, in Lamar, Mo., his birthplace, it was understood here Tuesday. The plan already has endorsement of Robert Hannegan, Democratic National Chairman, but formal announcement of the place and date await approval of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Truman probably will make his second speech in Detroit on Labor Day.

Looking Backward

Forty Years Ago

Articles of incorporation of the McLaughlin Bros. Furniture company were filed for record in the office of Recorder Lee Looney. The incorporated company has a capital stock of $36,000, divided into 360 shares, divided as follows: G. C. McLaughlin, 179 shares; J. C. McLaughlin, 179; J. C. McLaughlin, Jr., 1; Allan McLaughlin, 1. The board of directors for the first year are the foregoing named stockholders.

Prof. G. L. Coleman announces that the next teachers' examinations will be held at his office on August 26 and 27.

The directors of the Missouri State Fair have issued orders prohibiting the general public from visiting the State Fair grounds on Saturday and Sunday preceding the opening of the Fair on Monday next. The gatekeepers and the Fair police under the direction of Col. H. C. Demuth will go on duty Saturday morning and they will enforce the order of the Fair directors.

A mass meeting of Germans, and all others interested, will be held at the council chamber tonight to fix the date and arrange the program for the celebration of German day. It is earnestly requested that all who possibly can should be present.

Charles A. Guenther left this morning for a ten-days' trip to Chicago and the northern lakes.

Suicide Due Combat Fatigue

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9—(AP)—Combat fatigue, Navy Secretary Forrestal said Tuesday apparently caused one of the navy's youngest rear admirals to take his own life after participating in the invasion of Europe.

He was Don Pardee Moon, 50, whose task force moved through one of the most heavily mined areas off the French shores to attack the Cherbourg peninsula.

At that time the operation was reported to have been carried out with surprising speed and low casualties.

Where Moon was assigned at the time of his death last Saturday was not disclosed by the navy, which reported only:

"The Secretary of the Navy announced with regret that Rear Admiral Don Pardee Moon, U. S. Navy, who commanded a task force that took part in the landings in France, died on August 5, 1944. Apparently Rear Admiral Moon had taken his life as a result of combat fatigue."

Moon's death raises to 12 the number of officers of flag or general rank in the navy and marines who have died in combat areas since the war started.

One thousand 4-engine bombers flying to an objective 1000 miles away and fueled by 100-octane gasoline can carry 5,000,000 more pounds of bombs than could be carried if they burned 91-octane.

TWO WEDDINGS

XXI

CHRISTMAS is over, New Year's is over, and we are in the middle of January. Mali and Dr. Di Voto came from the front for what they thought would be a brief holiday. But Dr. Merrill decided to relieve them for a month and Dr. Levin is ready to go. He has not yet chosen his assistant nurse, and I hope he can read my thoughts and will ask me to go with him.

Captain Peters is out of the woods. After days and nights of agony, hovering between life and death, he came to and found the strength to open his eyes. When he saw Elizabeth he smiled. Then he closed them again. But we knew he was going to fight through. Will power and belief in life are the greatest curatives of all.

As soon as Captain Peters could talk he said to Elizabeth, "I might have been wounded at many other sectors of the front, but I wanted it here and the wish was granted. That proves I'm a privileged character. It also proves that my thoughts have power. Now I will think hard about two more things: to get well quickly, and to get married as soon as you have time for the ceremony."

To Dr. Merrill he said, "See, Doc, what others call a deadline is for me a lifeline. I have to be married by Feb. 1, and on my way to the front by March 1, crisp and crunchy for the spring offensive."

"You have my blessing," Dr. Merrill consented, "but first I would relax."

"That's all I've done since I came here. Isn't there some drug that will speed up the healing of these damn wounds?"

"Not that I know of."

"Then at least let me have the whole alphabet of vitamins. From what I'm told I should be rarin' to go in no time at all!"

Elizabeth is constantly busy about him. He must certainly have heard "I love you" in British by now. * * *

WE are always looking for new ways to boost morale, so we seize upon every small occasion as a cause for celebration. Once, in the midst of a farewell party for four boys who were ready to be sent home to the States, Dr. Merrill sprang a surprise that stole the show. After the men—well shaven, excited and noisy with anticipation—were seated around the dinner table, he rose to his feet and lifted his hand to call for silence. There was a new and joyful twinkle in his eyes.

"Friends," he said, "I am usually too shy to speak in public, but today I feel an urgent desire to brag about a well-kept secret. Our secret, Yvonne." And he turned toward the girl who had undergone such a miraculous transformation in the last few months. There was nothing of the flirtatious, superficial Yvonne left at all. In her place was a mature, deep-feeling woman, humbled by love and her own happiness.

"We are engaged to be married," Dr. Merrill went on. "We are bold enough to believe in personal happiness even under the thunder of the cannons and we intend to marry as soon as we can get hold of a chaplain. That's our secret and we're sharing it with you even as we want to share our happiness with you."

Though he appeared as composed and poised as ever, you could sense his inner satisfaction. Serious men have a way of showing happiness by not showing it. He didn't put his arm around Yvonne nor did he touch her hand. He simply sat down at his place again and continued eating his salad. But the rays of his contentment warmed the whole hall.

Showers of congratulations, good wishes, speeches, questions and jokes poured down on our "young couple," till Yvonne, after a rain of kisses, ostentatiously wiped the lipstick from her cheeks and implored, "Please, girls, let me taste some hot food. Don't ever believe that love ruins the appetite!"

IS it necessary to mention that there was no shop talk that night?

Dr. Levin played the violin, Mali sang. We even played games. No anticlimax whatsoever! It was as if pain and grief had agreed to lie dormant for a night. Not even the gravely wounded called us from our peaceful lull.

Only Miss Fryberg must have talked shop with Dr. Levin in an unobserved moment, because he said before we parted at midnight, "I have asked Miss Fryberg to help me at the field dressing station. I hope you are all in accord. We'll leave early in the morning."

I couldn't help bursting out in disappointment, "I'd hoped you'd be a mindreader, doctor, and choose me."

"Perhaps next time," he consoled.

"There will be no next time," Miss Fryberg interrupted him sharply. "I will be out there for the duration. I have the right experience for such a job."

She certainly didn't intend to sound ambiguous but we couldn't help being aware of the undertone in her voice.

I gave way instantly, "All right, I'll never interfere."

"Thanks," she said. "We have worked well together, girls, but you can get along without me. We'll meet again when the war is over." With that she left in her determined way.

Strange, I didn't feel any pity for her though I could imagine what she was going through. You can't feel pity for life itself. Youth will always be victor in the battle of sexes! It's one of the brazen laws of nature. The elders have to seek other compensation. We usually find it in work. Blessed be our work! (To Be Concluded)

Decorations were in blue and white. Later in the afternoon the guests were taken to the park where they were served ice cream and cake and were given small flags as favors.

Guests at the party were. April Burton, Beverly and Dorthea Linden, Michael Hannigan, Saundra Johnson, Dwane Smith, Shelah and Jack Isgur, Judy Raglan, Benjy Hill and Nancy Lee Garst. Beujy Hill and Nancy Lee Garst.

Church News

The Service Circle of the Broadway Presbyterian church will meet at the Service building all day Thursday to sew for the Red Cross.

Gas Station Closed For the Duration

BOSTON, Aug. 9—(AP)—In a decision handed down by Chief OPA hearing commissioner Arthur L. Brown, Andrew J. (Bossy) Gillis, former mayor of Newburyport, has been suspended from business as operator of a gasoline station in that city for the duration.

The suspension will become effective Aug. 20, Brown said.

The former Newburyport mayor, the commissioner found, "accepted 2,665 counterfeit 'TT' gasoline coupons at his station from November, 1943, to January, 1944, and had purchased 400 'TT' coupons in the black market." The commissioner also found that 13 coupons accepted by Gillis bore fictitious registrations.

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES — UNHEARD OF — BY EDGAR MARTIN

Fulbright is The Winner

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 9—(AP)—Tall, handsome Rep. James William Fulbright, staunch advocate of full United States cooperation with other nations to maintain permanent peace, is slated to succeed Hattie W. Caraway as United States Senator from Arkansas.

The freshman congressman won the Democratic senatorial nomination in a runoff primary fight yesterday with an old political opponent, Gov. Homer M. Adkins. In Arkansas, Democratic nomination is tantamount to election.

Fulbright gained national recognition when the House adopted his 55-word resolution recommending that the United States participate in an international organization strong enough to keep peace. Later he was appointed by Secretary of State Hull to head the London delegation on post-war education.

Held Pending Charges Of Petty Larceny

Mayo Gray, Negro, 216 East St. Louis street, is being held in jail pending the filing of charges of petit larceny against him, according to Chief of Police Anson Finnell. Gray according to the police took several bottles of brandy from the Simon Kanter liquor store, Main street and Kentucky avenue, Tuesday.

After he was arrested, the police say he admitted taking the brandy.

Bond Forfeited

C. B. Almquist, charged with overtime parking, failed to appear in police court this morning and his one dollar cash bond was ordered forfeited, by Judge C. W. Bente.

Loophole in Gas Rationing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—(AP)—There is a loophole in the national gasoline rationing program big enough to fly a sports biplane through.

Owners of private airplanes can demand enough gasoline to carry them on a vacation trip to the Yellowstone or a fishing trip to Florida, and their local ration boards must hand them the requested rations.

The only requisite is that the gasoline be used in the plane, not an automobile.

Officials of the Office of Price Administration conceded today they are helpless to do anything about the situation under present regulations. Conferences have been held, however, looking toward a possible revision of the rule.

Paragraph number 438.01 in the master OPA regulation book reads: "There is no restriction upon the amount of gasoline which may be allowed for operation of airplane engines." That guides the action of the local rationing boards.

French Pilot and Author is Missing

ROME, Aug. 9—(AP)—Antoine de St. Exupery, 44, French pilot and author, is missing after a mission over southern France, an official announcement said today.

During his youth he was a French mail pilot and from these experiences he produced his novel, "Night Flight."

He escaped when France fell. He had returned to duty only a short time ago.

Country Club Golf Matches Have Started

Divided Into Three Divisions; First Rounds End Sunday

The championship matches of the Sedalia Country Club are underway and first round matches in the three divisions must be played by Sunday night, August 13, according to the committee in charge. There are three divisions, the Championship Flight, the Sedalia Army Air Field Officers, and the Class "A" division.

It was explained the Officers were placed in their own division due to the playing of their games. Last year it was impossible for many of the officers to partake in the club championship because of hours worked at the base, and created some difficulty in getting the tournament over.

With the new arrangement the Officers can arrange their own games during the week, matching their hours to fit their own convenience, henceforth giving more interest in that division of the tournament.

The Championship Flight and parings:—E. M. Willets vs Lester Estes; Harold Junge vs E. F. Hausam; E. E. Herrmann vs John McGrath, E. H. Courtney vs P. C. Owen; Carl Oswald vs Tom Yount, W. M. Johns vs Pierre Lamy; Harold Yunker vs Glenn Neely, "Dutch" Kirchoffer vs Dr. Herbert B. Hunter.

Officers division:—F/O A. J. Arch vs Lt. Edmond M. Kruk, Captain Sam D. Camp vs Captain A. E. Steer; Lt. Tulman vs Lt. Arnold, Major C. M. Hall vs Captain Peterson; Captain James Hill vs Lt. J. J. Easley, Major S. T. Bailey vs Colonel Jerome B. McCauley; Lt. R. M. Waits vs Captain W. L. Keiser, Lt. Sherman vs Major Fannelli.

Class "A" division: — Hugo Sparn vs C. A. Wright, J. R. McQuiddy vs Dr. A. L. Walter, A. R. Scott vs Harold Heerman, H. R. Harris vs A. M. Hoffman; E. P. Neef vs James Denny, Dr. W. J. Boger vs J. F. Downs; Sam Ross vs E. P. Miller, Harold Dean vs either L. H. Hodges or Carl Urban. (In Class "A" Hodges and Urban tied for sixteenth place. Arrangements are to be made to determine whether the three will play, low score winning the first round or Hodges vs Urban to see who meets Dean.)

Thursday Kiwanis Club golf teams who will come to Sedalia to attend the noon-day meeting of the Sedalia Club will meet in a golf tournament at the Country Club, Thursday afternoon. Five men teams are coming from Boonville, Columbia and Jefferson City, to meet the Sedalia team.

Sacred Heart Wins Grade School Title

All the grade school softball teams were featured in a final end-the-season tournament on the Smith-Cotton diamonds Tuesday morning.

The six teams were entered in two brackets. In the upper bracket, Mark Twain drew a bye and Broadway and Jefferson were matched. Broadway defeated Jefferson, 6-5, putting herself up against Mark Twain, in which she was also victorious, 12-4.

In the lower bracket, Sacred Heart was teamed with Whittier, winning 12-0. Horace Mann had a bye, then played Sacred Heart and lost 15-3.

In the championship game between Sacred Heart and Broadway, the former team, a team of outstanding young players, won, 4-0, to cap the honors.

Mark Twin and Horace Mann played for third place, with the latter winning, 8-4. A final consolation game was arranged for Whittier and Jefferson. Whittier won, 10-6.

GSO Girls Defeat WAC's in Softball

In a tourney softball game Monday evening at the air base the local GSO Girls headed by Miss Dorothy Burford defeated the WAC's team by a lop-sided score of 24 to 6. The free hitting of the local girls kept them out in the lead all the while. Miss Patty Vaught accounted for two home runs, Miss Mary Ellen Merrill clouted three three-baggers, Miss Dorothy Burford made one three-base hit and a two-base hit, Mrs. Emma Hopkins accounted for two-base drives.

The battery for the winners was: Miss Dorothy Burford and Miss Patty Vaught, for the losers was Sgt. O'Neil and Pvts. Young and Armstrong.

This brings the two local girls teams into the finals. They will play a two out of three games series. The first game will be at 7 o'clock Friday at Smith-Cotton. Since the local group split into two teams to make a fourth team for the tourney it will be important that every girl be present at these games for the final series. GSO girls should report to Miss Burford, while the USO girls should meet with Miss Merrill.

The Smithton girls and the WAC's may meet in the near future to play off the tie for third place.

Mrs. Beardsley Wins First Round

Mrs. Charles E. Beardsley, 604 West Sixth street, defeated Mrs. Harry Sherman of Chicago 2 and 1 Tuesday in Chicago in the first round of the Women's Western Amateur Golf tournament and today is paired with Mrs. H. M. Sims, Evanston, Ill., for the second round. Mrs. Beardsley represents the Sedalia Country club.

Mrs. Sims, her opponent today, on Tuesday defeated Catherine Fox of Bloomfield, N. J., last year's co-medalist with Kay Byrne of Rye, N. Y., who also lost out in the first round in a series of surprises. Mrs. Sims, former Minnesota state titlist while residing in St. Paul, defeated the 19-year-old Miss Fox 2 and 1 after the easterner blew a two-up lead at the turn by stringing out four consecutive bogeys on the last nine, according to an Associated Press report.

If Mrs. Beardsley rides out the apparent tough match today, friends here predict she'll move into the finals and will have strong chances of winning a tourney title. She is a former Ohio champion.

The field was reduced to 16 contestants Tuesday with defending titlist Dorothy Garmain, Philadelphia, medalist Sally Sessions, Muskegon, Mich, and veteran Phyllis Otto, Omaha, Nebr., coming through with crushing wins.

Browns Open Decisive Road Trip Today

Luke Sewell Says He's Worried About Every Team in Am. League

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

Luke Sewell's St. Louis Browns opened their final decisive eastern tour today and even the boss was surprised to find a 6½-game mattress to fall back on if the going got too tough.

"I didn't realize we had that much of a lead until I read the newspapers," said Sewell. "We just concentrate on trying to win every day. Sure, I'm worried about the Yankees and Red Sox. I'm worried about every club in the league including Washington. They're all tough and the league is pretty well balanced up."

Sewell is Quiet

Sewell may believe deep down in his heart that his Brownies are "in" but you won't hear him say so until the last mathematical doubt has been eliminated. With Billy Southworth of the Cardinals conceding nothing despite a 16½ game lead, Sewell appeared entitled to reserve comment.

The big "if" to the Brownies' chances continues to be the current road trip. If the club can play .500 ball or close to it without developing any serious slump, tickets can be printed for an all-Sportsman's Park world series. After visiting all eastern cities, St. Louis must stop off at Detroit and Cleveland before going home. After the long jaunt, only five road games in Chicago will remain.

Joe McCarthy hasn't given up on the Yanks, declaring "There's nothing the matter with us that a few well pitched games won't fix." He planned to send Hank Borowy to the firing line today, leading with his ace against the Browns' No. 1 man, Bob Muncrief.

Four Days With Yankees

Four games in four days in New York will be followed by four in three days in Boston where Joe Cronin's Red Sox have hopes of blasting the visitors despite the imminent loss of Tex Hughson who is due to pitch his last game today against Chicago.

Both leagues resumed with a full schedule today after New York's 8-4 nod over Pittsburgh held the Tuesday spotlight. Bill Voiselle kept the Giants in fourth place by scattering eight hits and coming through with a double to touch off a 3-run winning spurt in the sixth for his 14th win. Max Butcher, routed in the second, was the loser.

• Sports Roundup

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 9.—(AP)—It is customary on Hambletonian Day to refer to the scene of harness racing's greatest classic as a "sleepy little Orange county town." . . . At 1 p. m. in Park Square yesterday there was only one person sleeping on a bench. Probably he was just resting up for today's job of raking in the city folks' money . . . There's plenty of rural atmosphere around Goshen, but the Hambletonian is mainly a big-town show . . . Its the city dwellers who like an outing in the country who make up most of the crowd . . . They also provide most of the winners.

Hambletonian Handouts

Yankee Maid, the favorite, didn't suffer a setback until she invaded real Yankee territory to race at Old Orchard, Maine. That trotting stride for the one-and-was where she broke from her only time, too . . . Good Time Park, Bill Cane's triangular mile track, is one of two race courses in the United States where the grandstand faces the afternoon sun . . . The other is Keeneland, which holds meetings only in the spring and fall as a result . . . Two Hambletonian entries, Foster Honover and Fighting Scot, sold for $325 and $450, respectively, as yearlings. Both were resold to their present owners for considerably higher prices. The choices, Yankee Maid and Enac, were both $1,500 yearlings.

Error Column

Ben Jones, who remained in Chicago while his flashy filly, Twilight Tear, took a licking from Vienna in Saratoga's Alabama stakes yesterday, may get a little consolation by remembering that time in 1926 when Knute Rockne didn't go along to watch his Notre Dame footballers lick Carnegie Tech and then had to explain away a 19-0 defeat . . . Dick McMahon, who drove Calumet Butler to a Hambletonian victory in 1931 and who buys a good many horses for owner Warren Wright, says the only time the Calumet farm boss criticized him was when he bought a mare named Dustwhirl for $10,500 . . . So now all he has to do if the boss looks displeased is mention Dustwhirl's little boy, Whirlaway.

Army Teams Win In Finals

Closes Softball Season Which Was Big Success

The army proved its superiority Tuesday night in the finals of the Twilight League tournament, with Section A (Mitchell Bombers) taking the championship in a close game with Sacred Heart, 7-6, and with the SAAF Officers defeating Pepsi-Cola 7-5 for third place place honors.

In the beginning of the big game, Sacred Heart scored four runs in the first inning and two in the second, holding the opposition scoreless until the fourth inning. However, at this point the soldiers sent in a cracker-jack pitcher, Westholn, who staid off the Sacred Heart men with the greatest of ease for the remaining four innings, while his team made a run in the fourth and six runs in the fifth to come out on top, 7-6.

Only one man got on base while Westholn was pitching. The large crowd of spectators joined in with shouting and cheering to make it a noisy night.

The third-place game was a closely-matched contest, too.

Following are the line scores:

Sacred Heart	420	000	0	—6
Section A	000	160	x	—7
Pepsi-Cola	103	100	0	—5
Officers	023	110	x	—7

This marks the completion of the local softball season. Much of the credit for its success goes to six sports-minded men who have devoted a great deal of their time toward arousing enthusiasm for a community ball schedules The men are Albert Steiner, of Smith-Cotton, Bill Walker, of Jefferson school, Ralph Dow, of Mark Twain, John Ligon, of Whittier, Ernest Morrow, of Horace Mann, and P. A. Sillers.

It has been expressed by these leaders that much sportsmanship was shown by every player and every team throughout the season.

Bag Limit on Ducks Raised By Federal

Missouri Laws Concur; Bag Limit to 15, Increase of 5

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9—(AP)—Hunters may shoot more waterfowl, and over a longer period this fall and winter under liberalized hunting regulations announced today.

The open season will be 80 days, ten longer than last year.

The general daily bag limit for ducks remains at ten, but an additional bag of five mallards, widgeons, and pintails, singly or in the aggregate, is allowed. Thus, if a hunter kills five or more of those species in a day, his bag limit on all ducks is 15.

No Live Decoys Allowed

The Fish and Wildlife Service, which drew up the regulations, refused to permit the taking of waterfowl by means of bait or with the help of live decoys, as urged by some hunters.

Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, fish and wildlife director, said the more liberal regulations were due to the steady increase in the continental migratory bird population. He said the increase in mallards, widgeons, and pintails has been "notable," and since they are the species which do the most damage to crops, hunters will be allowed to shoot more of them.

This is "purely a temporary expedient" to help farmers, he said, and will not be continued beyond this season unless crop protection again makes it necessary.

Open seasons on wild ducks, geese, brant, and coot as far as Missouri and surrounding states are concerned are as follows (both dates inclusive): Oct. 14 to January 1—Missouri, Illinois, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebaska. September 20 to December 8—Iowa. November 2 to January 20—Arkansas.

Some Limits The Same

The daily bag limit on geese and brant remains at two.

With respect to ducks, hunters will be allowed to include redhead and bufflehead ducks in their bag limit of ten, instead of shooting only three a day as last year. In addition to other shooting, a hunter is allowed a daily bag of 25 American and redbreasted mergansers, which Dr. Gabrielson said have become so numerous they are a menace to fish propagation.

Only one wood duck may be included in the daily bag.

Daily bag limit for coot is 25; for sora 25; for other rails and gallinules, 15 in the aggregate of all kinds; woodcock 4; mourning or turtle dove and white-winged dove, 10 in the aggregate of both kinds; and band-tailed pigeon, 10.

A hunter must not have in his possession at any one time more than 20 ducks in the aggregate of all kinds (except American and red-breasted mergansers, of which he may possess 25), and in addition 10 mallards, widgeons and pintails, singly or in the aggregate. He is limited to possession of one wood duck.

Other Bag Limit Changes

Possession limit for white-winged doves was reduced from 20 to 10 birds.

Open season on other migratory birds:

Mourning or turtle doves:
Missouri—Sept. 1-Oct. 25.
Woodcock: Missouri—Nov. 10-Nov. 24.

As to the bag limit, the Missouri laws concur with those of the federal laws. It will be noted in the Wildlife Laws of the Missouri State Conservation Commission, in reference to migratory birds, it refers to the federal laws.

United States Pays Million In Benefits

Cleveland Widow Rounds Out Number One Million

The one-millionth beneficiary, a young widow with two small children, will receive her first check today in Cleveland, under the monthly insurance plan of the United States Social Security board.

August, marking the ninth birthday of social security, finds $18,300,000 being paid throughout the country in monthly benefits to all types of eligible participants. The original social security law was signed August 14, 1935.

At the field office of the federal old age and survivors bureau for Kansas City and surrounding Missouri counties, about fifty new claims are presented each week. There are now 5,900 cases receiving monthly payments on the current rolls at the office at 1006 Grand avenue, according to Hugh P. McTernan, manager.

The story of the family insurance program, for which the government and millions of workers in "covered" industries are contributors, is best told by translating into human terms the $58.49 monthly check the widow of the Cleveland war worker will receive.

Most to Women and Children

Mrs. Mary Rex Thompson is 33 years old, and her children, Dale Bernice, 4, and Jerald Robert, 1. The payment for each child will stop at age 18. When Jerald reaches that age, his mother's benefits will cease until she is 65.

Thompson, whose average monthly salary was $159.40, paid $145 in taxes over seven and one-half years prior to his death June 19. His employers paid an equal amount.

Sixty per cent, or 600,000, of the 1 million now receiving monthly benefits are women and children. Approximately 400,000, or 40 per cent, are retired male workers. These figures illustrate the realization of the purpose of social security—to prevent destitution and to provide a basic minimum subsistence for families in which the breadwinner dies or stops work because of old age.

In recent months a widow in the Kansas City area, the mother of seven children under 18 years, inquired concerning her social security status. Her husband, a contractor, had considered himself an independent businessman, and thus not qualified for the federal insurance.

A 3-month investigation disclosed that the man often had been employed by other companies, thus amassing insurance benefits during those periods. His widow, who was facing destitution, is receiving $49 per month.

The breakdown on the million benefits now in force is:

418,500 retired workers receiving $9,846,000 a month.

122,000 wives, 65 or over, of retired workers, $1,518,000.

109,000 widows with young children, $2,155,000.

288,000 children under 18 of deceased or retired workers, $3,550,000.

58,000 aged widows of deceased workers, $1,172,000.

4,500 aged dependent parents of insured workers who died leaving no widow or young child, $59,000 a month.

A considerable increase in retirement benefits is expected when war production is reduced. More than 600,000 eligible men and women past sixty-five years now have jobs.

Paying into this vast insurance program is virtually every wage earner, excepting those in agriculture and in domestic service, government employees — city, county, state and federal — and employees of nonprofit charitable and religious institutions. The "premium" is frozen until January, 1945, at the original figure of 1 per cent of the wages received, up to $3,000 in one year. An equal percentage is contributed by the employer. All premiums go into a trust fund.

Wage and Service Affect Benefits

Each worker's benefit depends upon his average monthly wage and the length of time he has worked in the job covered. No payment on one worker's account may exceed $85 per month. A widow's benefit is three-quarters of the amount due her husband; a wife's, one-half; a child's, one half of the benefit of the parent on whose account he claims benefit; a parent's the same as a child's.

The career woman who later marries, must stick to her job in a covered industry a minimum of ten years if she is to be insured under her own right when she reaches 65. If she works less than ten years, she loses her individual insurance but acquires a wife's share by marriage. If at age 65 she is eligible for payments either from her own or her husband's benefits, she is permitted to choose the larger one.

The social security trust fund on June 30 amounted to $5,446,390,766. The interest to that date was $404,658,876.

Do Your Christmas Shopping Now for Personnel Overseas

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9—(AP)—Two postoffice department hot weather suggestions:

1. Christmas shop now for service personnel overseas.

2. Wrap securely, address plainly and mail between September 15 and October 15.

Emphasizing the importance of mailing dates, Frank C. Walker, postmaster general, said that no gifts for military personnel overseas may be mailed before September 15 or after October 15 unless written request from the intended receiver is presented.

Wartime shipping demands make early and restricted mailing dates necessary.

Walker asked that this year greater pains be taken in packaging and addressing. Although a shoe box is the proper size it is not a reliable container, he pointed out.

If you want to be sure your gift arrives in good condition use a box made of metal, wood, solid fiberboard or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard and reinforce it with strong gummed paper or tie it with strong twine. Better yet, use both gummed paper and twine.

Walker advised also writing the address on both the box and the outside wrapper.

He added these reminders: Parcels must not exceed five pounds, must not be more than fifteen inche long nor thirty-six inches in length and girth combined, and should be plainly marked "Christmas parcel" to receive special attention.

Be sure the contents are tightly packed. Such things as candy and cake should be enclosed in separate containers. Perishable goods, intoxicants, inflammable materials, poisons and anything that may damage other mail are prohibited.
